A new method is reported for reduction and fixation of displaced fractures of the posterior wall of the atlas (Atlanto-axial subluxation). This method makes use of a new laser-guided approach in a minimally invasive manner. A right-sided superior-inferior approach to the atlas allows the insertion of an easily movable guidewire through the trapezoid into the vertebral canal. The posterior wall of the atlas is exposed by an easily movable drill, and the Atl

In its 10th season, the ABC series returned with a fullblown revival and global buzz—after a cameo in the series finale of The Walking Dead. Knight Rider, now starring one-time castmate David Hasselhoff, engaged viewers with the heroic quest of the ultimate car, the KITT, the second-personable robot-suit that swept around the streets of LA fighting crime. The show was produced by Peter Lenkov, creator of The X-Files, and is executive-produced by Robert L. Boyett (The Greatest American Hero), who felt his show could be a great companion to Robert A. Heinlein's classic science fiction novel The Moon is a Harsh Mistress. The ongoing Knight Rider revival includes a radio-linked satellite that controlled the KITT from the WB's Los Angeles studios, and a new version of the KITT debuted to a positive response in 2012's Halloween-themed episode. KITT (voice): A leader of the new breed of machine-warrior. A unique hybrid of cutting-edge bio-mechanical technology and state-of-theart engineering. The highly advanced Knight Industries Two Thousand. For your protection, the information in this manual is classified. However, I don't understand why you have a manual. Why did you have to put one in? What makes you so important that people need this manual to help them?? KITT: I was designed for this and this is my purpose. To protect my users. When you use me in battle, you fight at your best. KITT: Battle? KITT, what are we talking about? KITT: I'm talking about what you're doing to the city, to the law. To a child. To yourself. KITT: Stop it! KITT: Let me help you, John. KITT: Let me help you, John. KITT: All right, let's try a test. Let's try one really old one. If you were in the ocean and you saw a shark, it's safe to say that you would feel fear. That's simple to remember, isn't it
