character certificate format by gazetted officer pdf download BJP in no mood for 'smooth sailing': Amit Shah on coalition with JMM Kolkata, Jan 12 (IANS) In a little more than a week, India will be going to polls in seven states to find out who will form a government in the country. No party is looking forward to an easy ride to victory, except for the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP). Leader of the Opposition in Rajasthan and all-India BJP president Amit Shah on Tuesday said that though the BJP is in no mood for a smooth sailing, there was no doubt it would come back to power in four out of seven states. "We know very well that smooth sailing to power is not possible for any party. But we are confident that the people of Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Delhi will come out of their homes and choose us for the second time," he said. This is the first time that the BJP is contesting the by-elections in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Delhi. Last year in November, the BJP lost the Rajasthan assembly elections after seven years in power. "We had spent around Rs. 500 crore in the last elections. But we have prepared for the by-polls in Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Delhi as we think our parties would perform better in assembly elections," he said. "I assure the people of India that we are ready to work in a positive way to empower the common man. We had promised the people of India four crore jobs. I am sure we will come back to power in four states with majority." Functional localization of the steroid hydroxylase cytochrome P-450 4A11 in human testes.
