the Communist Party of China, and also the first and at the time only Chinese Minister of Defense. Biography Born in Shanghai, Li was born the son of a Qing dynasty general named Li Gong (). He was a veteran of the Communist People's Liberation Army, and was awarded the rank of lieutenant general in 1977. He was involved in the production of consumer goods and ran a rice mill as well as participated in Deng Xiaoping's agricultural reform program from 1980 to 1982, though he disagreed with Deng's policy of "letting some crops fail." During this time, he was an alternate member of the 8th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China. In 1982, Li joined a select group of senior leaders who were recognized as "tigers" by Deng Xiaoping. In 1985 he was nominated to the all-powerful Politburo Standing Committee of the Communist Party 0cc13bf012
