CONCLUSION Because Brubaker, a Michigan resident, lacked adequate service of process on three of the defendants and because the Michigan long-arm statute does not confer personal jurisdiction over the other defendants, I GRANT the defendants' motion and I dismiss the complaint without prejudice.[7] ORDER AND NOW, this 20th day of May 2007, for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion, it is ORDERED that Defendants T. James Vincent, Paul L. Grimm, Neill W. Ford, Paul E. Tarpley and Charles R. Cox's Motion To Dismiss (Doc. No. 9) is GRANTED. NOTES [1] The parties refer to eight of the defendants as "The Sheriff of Anne Arundel County, Maryland, et al." I will refer to them collectively as "the County defendants." [2] Brubaker attached her affidavit to the complaint. [3] The defendants moved to strike this affidavit. I will consider this document and the accompanying affidavit to the extent that they are relevant to the motion to dismiss. [4] As noted by the defendants in their motion, conspiracy claims cannot be the basis
