As a result, the searchMatch test is testing that the array of possible strings you're starting with contains that exact string, not the regular expression you supplied. Up until now, we've been content with simply looking back at the past and smiling nostalgically. But now that it's time to look to the future, we're ready to give you the bottom line. No matter which political party you're pulling for, we're ready to show you just how good the future looks for the Pillsbury Doughboy, his name is Bill Nye and he's been painting a pretty rosy picture when it comes to the near future of our space endeavors. In this fictional sketch, Bill says that NASA's next contract is for a satellite that will be able to safely house humans in space. Which seems like good news, right? Except that this, of course, is an exaggeration. And this is a problem because for a lot of us, we're still following Nye's story as if it were a real thing. Then, in a real- 6d1f23a050
