Autodata 2013 PT-BR - New Autodata Version 2013 Released with 2013, 2013,US president Barack Obama has instructed the top official in the country's diplomatic service to conduct a worldwide review of policies, practices and systems, including the promotion of racial equality, to determine their effectiveness. The results of the review are expected to be submitted by the end of the year, the US state department said in a statement on Friday night. I think US government officials found that as they opened their mouths the truth came out - in all cases. "Over the last three years, we have taken substantial steps forward to promote racial equality in the United States of America," said Caroline Adelman, assistant secretary of state for diplomatic security. "We were looking at this because we want to make sure that our policies and practices and systems are adding up to what we need them to do." Among the changes ordered by Obama are: review the promotion, assignment and senior management of women, minorities, veteran and others who may not have traditionally received a fair shot in high-level positions draw up plans to eliminate institutionalised bias in hiring and promoting for the diplomatic corps ensure that intelligence and investigative activities are in line with the civil liberties of US citizens and permanent residents develop solutions to enhance the effectiveness of training "I think US government officials found that as they opened their mouths the truth came out - in all cases," said Martin Bishop, a political analyst. The report comes amid growing tensions between the US and its allies in the Middle East over Israel's plans to build 3,000 housing units in East Jerusalem. "It's very easy in Washington to blame one leader 6d1f23a050
