While it has not even launched yet, the first items from the popular collection of luxury goods brand Versace have already hit the shelves of department stores in Australia. Titled the "Versace Edition," the collection features luggage, travel and writing accessories, all of which are inspired by the designer's iconic woman, Madonna. Versace's upcoming launch party will be held at the Grosvenor Hotel in Melbourne, where the livery of the brand's white-liveried-automobiles will be on display, such as a Ferrari 612 Scaglietti and a Lamborghini Gallardo. Moncler reteams with Madonna for her new French-inspired collection Versace's "Versace Edition" collection is dedicated to the late American singer, who was inspired by the fashion house's masculine aesthetic to create her second clothing and accessories collection. Madonna's inspiration was also evident on social media, with the singer's 42.3 million followers all sharing the hashtag #MadgeVersace, using the hashtag to express their desire to recreate the look and feel of Madonna's iconic wardrobe.
